VINEYARD

Bentrock is a north-facing vineyard at the western edge of the appellation. Sharing more in common with Domaine de la Côte than the other interior vineyard sources, Bentrock is densely planted in meager marine sedimentary soils.

TASTING NOTE

"Intense and powerful, but also quite fresh because of the north-facing orientation of this block, the Bentrock has a lot to offer. Time in the glass fleshes out the wine nicely, but the best is yet to come."
